fore the world be-gan You knew my name. How a maz - ing. And Lord, you

12

o-pened up your hands and be gan, You formed the world be-fore you made man.

15

How a maz - ing. Where was I when you cre - a - ted light and the moun-tains first stood be-neath the sky? You, O Lord, dwell far a bove the heav ens.

19

23

You know eve - ry star by name. You are throned in 26

maj - es - ty and glo - ry and we long to be the same.

light. How a maz - ing. And Lord, your know - ledge and your love trans-scends time. You care a bout each day of our lives. How a maz - ing. You de- light in those who fear your name, and your glo-ry shines through from age to age. You, O Lord, dwell far a bove the heav ens. You know eve - ry star by name. You are throned in 54

42

46

50

maj-es-ty and glo-ry and we long to be the same. You, O Lord, dwell far a bove the heav ens.
